"What To Do In Times Of Trouble"

"Come walk with us; we will do thee good!"

Word from our Pastor

To God Be the Glory for All the great things He hath done.

Happy New Year to the entire Reedy Fork Baptist Church Family and Community.

It is with great pleasure and joy that I pen this first greeting of 2026. However before we move forward let us take a retrospective view of the previous year.

As we look back into 2025 we have encountered a year marked by intense political shifts, diminishing healthcare services, food shortages, higher cost of living, an uncertain job market, housing decline, racial biases and a decline in leadership integrity.

In the midst of all of the various challenges and uncertainties that we are encountering let me take this moment to thank each of you who make up and share in the RFBC Faith Family.

Your presence, faithfulness and continued support has enable us to come through 2025 brighter and stronger because of our walk with the King of Kings and Lord of Lords!

Through the various vehicles, instruments, avenues and personalities of ministry God has blessed us in so many ways and we give Him the Praise for His manifold blessings.

Therefore as we transition into 2026 the biblical writer calls for us to us to create a plan and vision to face this new year.

This new pilgrimage will call each of us to rethink our lives, our work, and our walk with Him.

As we launch into this new year what we face and how we face it should be based upon our relationship with Him.

Will we continue to do things as before, getting the same results as in the past, surely not. I believe that the Lord is calling each us to trust and place a deeper faith in Him. A faith that will allow us to Launch deeper in reaching the lost, studying His word, obediently proclaiming and practicing His word, prayer, serving Him through our spiritual gifts by lifting others, giving back to God according to how He has blessed us, loving each other not just in word but in actions while going and growing together as the Spirit leads us.

Therefore how will this happen cooperatively and personally? The biblical writer encourages us to write the vision, in other words create the plan for where He is leading us at this appointed time of our journey . Without the vision the people will run wild and out of order but whoever obeys the law is joyful. I am encouraging staff, every member and every ministry leader to spend time within the first thirty days of 2026 creating and writing your personal, family and ministry plan that God is breathing in you. Know that according to Jermiah 29:11 that He has a plan for you personally, for your family, and ministry. Please don't miss your opportunity to be the difference in 2026. Come and walk with us for we will do thee good!

Mission Statement

Our Vision

“Reaching The Unchurched for Christ”

“Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.” Acts 2:41 (NIV)

“Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Matthew 28:18-20 (NIV)

Our Values

Together we Serve through:

The Call to Worship

Leader: Today brings renewal to our lives.

Congregation: We will see with fresh eyes.

Leader: Today brings fresh promises.

Congregation: We will be vulnerable to new ideas.

Leader: Today brings new opportunities to share.

All We will welcome the stranger through kinship with Christ.

Scripture in Response: 1 Samuel 30: 1-10 (NIV)

Leader: ¹ David and his men reached Ziklag on the third day. Now the Amalekites had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burned it, Congregation: ² and had taken captive the women and everyone else in it, both young and old. They killed none of them, but carried them off as they went on their way.

Leader: ³ When David and his men reached Ziklag, they found it destroyed by fire and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.

Congregation: ⁴ So David and his men wept aloud until they had no strength left to weep.

Leader: ⁵ David’s two wives had been captured—Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

Congregation: ⁶ David was greatly distressed because the men were talking of stoning him; each one was bitter in spirit because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength in the LORD his God.

Leader: ⁷ Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelek, “Bring me the ephod.” Abiathar brought it to him,

Congregation: ⁸ and David inquired of the LORD, “Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them?”
“Pursue them,” he answered. “You will certainly overtake them and succeed in the rescue.”

Leader: ⁹ David and the six hundred men with him came to the Besor Valley, where some stayed behind.

All: ¹⁰ Two hundred of them were too exhausted to cross the valley, but David and the other four hundred continued the pursuit.

"And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their heart and soul." (II Chronicles 15:12)

Minister: What common experience leads us into spiritual fellowship and covenant relations with God and one another?

Congregation: Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

Minister: By what pledge do we turn from the ways of the world?

Congregation: With this view, we engage to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality, to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines.

Minister: What vows do we gladly make as stewards of that which God has entrusted to us?

Congregation: To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel to foster Christian education and missions throughout all nations.

Minister: For the sake of our home and loved one, what tasks do we humbly assume?

Congregation: We engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; and to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

Minister: For the sake of the unsaved for whom Christ died to what manner of life and conversation are we solemnly pledged?

Congregation: To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our effort to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

Minister: Since One is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren, by what fraternal ministries are we to strengthen each other and adorn the teachings of our Lord?

Congregation: We further engage to watch over each other in brotherly love and watchfulness; giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rule of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

Minister: For the good of our own Spiritual development, and for the best interest of the Master's kingdom, what do we promise to do if we move beyond the reach of this church?

Congregation: We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church of this faith, where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's Word.

All: Humbly confessing our past sins, we pray for grace and strength to keep these, our holy vows, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
