Luke 4:14-21 (NIV)

vs. 18 "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free.

vs. 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor

"God For Us"

"Come walk with us; we will do thee good!"

Word from our Pastor

To God Be the Glory for All the great things He hath done.

To God be the glory for all the great things He hath done!

How many of us recall the old Christmas classic "I'll Be Home for Christmas?

People go through all sorts of things and jump many hurdles to return home to family, friends and fun for Christmas.

There's something special and magical about being home around family, friends and new acquaintances during this season.

For many, it is simply no longer possible. This year as last year will continue to be different because of the many social, economic and spiritual challenges we encounter day to day.

Christmas and the holidays will return to some normalcy, however for many it will be a time of loneliness, pain and anxiety.

We live in a post-modern age where close knit neighborhoods no longer exist because we allow our difference and lifestyles to divide us.

Therefore, when we are talking about coming home for Christmas, our focus and attention is on more than coming home physically, our burden shifts to coming home spiritually as well.

There are so many who have been away from their spiritual home for so long and there is no better time to "come home" than during this season. How can we make the most of this advent and Christmas season this year? For some making the most of Christmas is simply some warm fuzzy feeling, listening to carols that brings memories of days gone by. For others it is filled with such things as decorating our homes and trees or getting the gift we want.

For many it's the invitation to a certain party or Christmas ball. But making the most of Christmas involves so much more. The gospel of Luke tells us how we can truly make the most this Christmas. We can make the most of this Christmas by seeking the King of Kings for He is our Emmanuel, God with us! How can we celebrate without the King being with us?

We want to encourage each person not to just go through the motions but to seek the King, Bless His Name, Adore Him, and Exalt Him for the many wonderful things He has done in each of our lives this year and throughout the years. As God has blessed us with His Son, let us be a blessing to someone else. "Let His light Shine through each of us, to brighten the lives of others and encourage them as they press through these very difficult and challenging times.

With so many lives and families encountering a new reality we must remember the One who has life, gives life and nourishes life in these almost impossible times. For the hymn writer reminds us "

Joy to the world! The Lord is come

Let earth receive her King!

Let every heart prepare Him room

And heaven and nature sing

And heaven and nature sing

And heaven, and heaven and nature sing

Let us help someone experience the real Joy of Christmas!!!

Merry Christmas to you and your family!

A Gentle Guide to Holiday Grief

Grief doesn't take a holiday. This season, it's okay to feel joy and sorrow side by side. These gentle reminders offer ways to care for yourself, honor your memories, and find small moments of peace this season.

Holiday To-Do List

- ❖ Talk about your grief: Don't be afraid to express your grief. Ignoring it won't make it go away.
- ❖ Be tolerant of your physical and psychological limits: You may feel tired and sluggish. Respect what your body and mind are telling you.
- ❖ Be with supportive/comforting people: Surround yourself with people who understand that the holiday season increase your sense of loss.
- ❖ Mention the name of the person who died: Include them in your holiday conversations.
- ❖ Do what is right for you during the holidays: Well-meaning people may try to tell you what is best for you. Only do what feels right to you during the holiday season.
- ❖ Plan ahead for family gatherings: Plan ahead on which family traditions you want to continue, and which ones don't fit this year.
- ❖ Embrace your memories: Memories can be a legacy of the one you loved. They can bring laughter and joy as well as sadness. Embrace it all.

Holiday To-Don't List

- ❖ Don't do anything that doesn't serve you and your loss: There is no "right way" to do grief, especially during the holidays.
- ❖ Don't keep your feelings bottled up: If you have 1,000 tears to cry, don't stop at 999.
- ❖ Don't overindulge: This can include food and alcohol.
- ❖ Don't be afraid to say "No, thank you": It's ok to skip some things this year.
- ❖ Don't feel like you must explain your grief: If someone doesn't get it, that's on them.

Merry Christmas from Agape Care Group, RFBC & RFCCD

Church Covenant in Response Service

"And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their heart and soul." (II Chronicles 15:12)

Minister: What common experience leads us into spiritual fellowship and covenant relations with God and one another?

Congregation: Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

Minister: By what pledge do we turn from the ways of the world?

Congregation: With this view, we engage to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality, to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines.

Minister: What vows do we gladly make as stewards of that which God has entrusted to us?

Congregation: To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel to foster Christian education and missions throughout all nations.

Minister: For the sake of our home and loved one, what tasks do we humbly assume?

Congregation: We engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; and to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

Minister: For the sake of the unsaved for whom Christ died to what manner of life and conversation are we solemnly pledged?

Congregation: To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our effort to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

Minister: Since One is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren, by what fraternal ministries are we to strengthen each other and adorn the teachings of our Lord?

Congregation: We further engage to watch over each other in brotherly love and watchfulness; giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rule of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

Minister: For the good of our own Spiritual development, and for the best interest of the Master's kingdom, what do we promise to do if we move beyond the reach of this church?

Congregation: We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church of this faith, where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's Word.

All: Humbly confessing our past sins, we pray for grace and strength to keep these, our holy vows, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
