ACTS 20: 22-38 (NIV)

vs. 35 "In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

"When It's Good To Give"

"Come walk with us; we will do thee good!"

Word from our Pastor
Praises be unto God for the great things He hath done.

As we enter into this eleventh month of the year, I am reminded of the words of the of the writer of 1 Thessalonians 5:18, who states that "in all thing give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you". Additionally the song writer blasts that every day is a day of thanksgiving, therefore it's at this time of year that we raise the bar and refocus ourselves on being thankful and grateful for the many blesses bestowed upon each of us.

Often we are faced with the question of what gratitude really is, therefore in this month's greeting I will spend this time defining gratitude and stating some of my concerns relative to gratitude.

What is gratitude? Gratitude is the appreciation of benefits received. Gratitude is not happiness, a fleeting feeling from a particular circumstance. Gratitude is not conditional. I get something therefore I am thankful. I do not get something; therefore I am not thankful. Gratitude is not guilt. The story of starving children in the world might create guilt but not necessarily gratitude. Gratitude is not mind game, a psychological trick to vanquish difficult situations. Gratitude is a constant mentality that recognizes a benefit, it's value and its source.

From The Book of Virtues to Plato's four virtues, one virtue is missing; gratitude. Though, lost gratitude is arguably the most important virtue. Researchers have demonstrated that gratitude is considered the parent of all virtues by Cicero, and actually improves psychological, relational, cognitive, and spiritual well-being. When gratitude is missing from the fabric of our lives, our lives are diminished.

Thankfulness and gratitude is not for God's fulfillment; it's for us. Gratitude infinitely improves our lives. Therefore let us constantly throughout each day engage ourselves in the practice of expressing thanks to God, Family, friends, strangers for their benefits in our lives. Remember " Every day is a day of Thanksgiving".

Blessings and I thank God for each of you!!!

REMINDER:
Don't forget to sign the Attendance Card located on the clipboard on your pew.

The Golden Age Ministry meetings has been cancelled for November 1, 2025 and December 6, 2025. In lieu of our meetings we will celebrate together. All Golden Age members are cordially invited to join us for our Annual Fellowship Birthdays Luncheon. November 22, 2025, 12:00 Noon at J Peters in Mauldin, SC. We look forward to your attendance.

To all Ushers, our next meeting on November 8th at 9 a.m. is of importance. Please attend. I ask that all parents attend with their children. Also, if there's anyone interested in becoming an usher, we would love for you to attend. Thank you . President Jane Hood 864-617-2866

It's Report Card Time! Parents, it's time to turn in your child's 1st Nine Weeks report card! Please send a copy to the church so we can celebrate our students' hard work. We'll be recognizing students based on their core subjects — English, Math, Science, and Social Studies. If your child doesn't receive letter grades, no need to send in a report card. Our student recognition will take place on Sunday, November 9th (the 2nd Sunday in November). Please submit report cards to the Administrative Assistant. If you have any questions, contact Sis. Thaya Posley at (864) 420-1343. Thank you for helping us celebrate our amazing students!

Attention! Attention! It almost time to lace up, show up and leave it all on the court! Get ready for the UCAA basketball season, we will have skills training the following dates and times: 6-8 yr olds: Oct 25th, Nov 1st and Nov 8th at 9-9:45 and 9-14 yr olds: Oct 25th, Nov 1st and Nov 8th 9:45 -11:00. Don't "pass" this opportunity to sharpen your skills to be a "slam dunk" athlete this season! Please contact the following for any questions or if there is an interest in coaching, Dea. Eugene Williams, Sis. Angela Simmons or Sis. Selina Williams.

Join Us for RFBC Sunday School - Sundays @ 8:30 AM
We're excited to relaunch our Sunday School Ministry and we'd love to see you there! Come grow with us as we explore God's Word together in a friendly and welcoming setting. Here's what you'll find:

- 📖 Clear and practical teaching that connects the Bible to everyday life
- 🤝 Supportive relationships that encourage and strengthen one another
- 👨👩👧👦 Classes for all ages—so bring the whole family!

Breast Cancer Awareness Month has ended. However, that does not mean the fight for a cure ends, so at every opportunity spread the word about self-breast care for women and men. To God be the Glory. The Health & Wellness Ministry would like to thanks our Pastor for all his support in our missions for the church. Our sponsors for the month were: Dea. Maurice Sullivan, Mr. Douglas Garrett of Watkins, Garrett & Woods Mortuary Sis Janice Alford. We also want to thank those who are donating hats, blankets and scarves. Donations continue until November 9th.

The Call to Worship:

In Christ we have a glorious inheritance through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Let the saints of God rejoice!

Praise the Lord! Sing to the Lord a new song.

Rejoice and be glad for the Lord reigns.

Praise God with the dance.

Praise God with songs of adoration.

For God lifts up the lowly and cast down the mighty.

Praise the Lord! Sing to the Lord a new song.

22 “And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there.

23 I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me.

24 However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God’s grace.

25 “Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again.

26 Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of any of you.

27 For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God.

28 Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.

29 I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock.

30 Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them.

31 So be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

32 “Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

33 I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing.

34 You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions.

35 In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’ ”

36 When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed.

37 They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him.

38 What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

In Remembrance of Him.....

"And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their heart and soul." (II Chronicles 15:12)

Minister: What common experience leads us into spiritual fellowship and covenant relations with God and one another?

Congregation: Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

Minister: By what pledge do we turn from the ways of the world?

Congregation: With this view, we engage to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality, to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines.

Minister: What vows do we gladly make as stewards of that which God has entrusted to us?

Congregation: To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel to foster Christian education and missions throughout all nations.

Minister: For the sake of our home and loved one, what tasks do we humbly assume?

Congregation: We engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; and to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

Minister: For the sake of the unsaved for whom Christ died to what manner of life and conversation are we solemnly pledged?

Congregation: To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our effort to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

Minister: Since One is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren, by what fraternal ministries are we to strengthen each other and adorn the teachings of our Lord?

Congregation: We further engage to watch over each other in brotherly love and watchfulness; giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rule of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

Minister: For the good of our own Spiritual development, and for the best interest of the Master's kingdom, what do we promise to do if we move beyond the reach of this church?

Congregation: We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church of this faith, where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's Word.

All: Humbly confessing our past sins, we pray for grace and strength to keep these, our holy vows, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
