

Dolly V. Bullock, LUTCF, CLTC
Financial Services Professional
New York Life Insurance Company

Prior to starting her Career at New York Life, she climbed the ranks at Bank of America from a Personal Banker, to Business Banker, and finally Treasury Management Analyst.

Dolly Bullock, began her career at New York Life in January of 2008 as an agent in the Columbia, South Carolina G.O. In her first 6 months Dolly qualified for Quality Council. She went on to obtain awards for success in sales such as Career Life Success Award, Life Foundation Award, Life All Star, and Centurion for four consecutive years. After achieving two consecutive Executive Councils and having a love for helping others Dolly became a Sales Development Manager in the companies, Dallas TX G.O.

In her role as a Sales Development manager Dolly has personally developed five agents that have grown into a management careers. She excels in Field Observation and Development, Case Prep, training in the Fact Finding and Client Resolution.

Dolly managed all development & training operations in the fast paced environment of the downtown Chicago North Shore General Office & Los Angeles General Office prior to returning to her home state of South Carolina.