"Come walk with us; we will do thee good!"

Word from our Pastor

Praises be unto God for the great things He hath done.

October 2026 Greeting

Praises be unto God for all the great things He has done!

As we transition through this earthly journey we are often faced with great and challenging decisions.

Decisions like should I, follow Christ, should I go to church, should I commit more time to the Savior and to my Church, should I register to vote and go vote ,what should I do relative to the many injustices and challenges that we face as a community of faith, should I change my behavior and attitudes toward certain people, places and things. Big decisions! However the real question is, are our decisions lead and directed by our Creator. Here is a story I want to share as you make your day to day decisions in your life.

After being anointed king of Israel, instead of immediately going to Jerusalem and claiming his Thorne, David was forced to spend years living like a fugitive and hiding in caves because Saul was out to take his life. More than once he must have asked himself, What about the promise God gave me? Then an interesting thing happened. One of David's soldiers found Saul asleep; he came to David saying, God has delivered your enemy into your hand, let me kill him. What an opportunity! Get rid of the man who wants to kill you, come out of hiding, and claim your Thorne. After all you are already anointed to be king! It all made sense, except for one thing, it was not God's plan. As much as David wanted to rule Israel, he knew that in order to succeed he must do it God's way. This story should make you think twice, and pray before acting or making a decision.

When Abishai offered to kill Saul, he had David's welfare at heart. So be careful; your family, friends and associates can give advise that is contrary to God's will. That's when it's hard not to go along with it, or defend your decision by rationalizing that the end justifies the means. Never let anyone, however well intentioned, persuade you to do what you know is wrong. Trust God from the bottom of your heart; don't try to figure out everything on your own. Listen for God's voice, He's the one who will keep you on track. Each time you have to make a decision, big or small ask yourself does it glorify our Creator and bring honor to Him?

Blessings & Enjoy Building

The Call to Worship:

Leader: The heavens proclaim the glory of God!

Congregation: We too proclaim what God has done in our lives.

Leader: Voices of praise shout to the ends of the earth.

All: May we join the chorus, as we sing of God’s great and abiding love!

Scripture in Response: James 5:1-6 (NIV)

Leader: ¹Now listen, you rich people, weep and wail because of the misery that is coming on you.

Congregation: ² Your wealth has rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes.

Leader: ³ Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days.

Congregation: ⁴ Look! The wages you failed to pay the workers who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty.

Leader: ⁵ You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened yourselves in the day of slaughter.

All: ⁶ You have condemned and murdered the innocent one, who was not opposing you.

In Remembrance of Him.....

Church Covenant in Response Service

"And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their heart and soul." (II Chronicles 15:12)

Minister: What common experience leads us into spiritual fellowship and covenant relations with God and one another?

Congregation: Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

Minister: By what pledge do we turn from the ways of the world?

Congregation: With this view, we engage to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality, to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines.

Minister: What vows do we gladly make as stewards of that which God has entrusted to us?

Congregation: To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel to foster Christian education and missions throughout all nations.

Minister: For the sake of our home and loved one, what tasks do we humbly assume?

Congregation: We engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; and to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

Minister: For the sake of the unsaved for whom Christ died to what manner of life and conversation are we solemnly pledged?

Congregation: To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our effort to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

Minister: Since One is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren, by what fraternal ministries are we to strengthen each other and adorn the teachings of our Lord?

Congregation: We further engage to watch over each other in brotherly love and watchfulness; giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rule of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

Minister: For the good of our own Spiritual development, and for the best interest of the Master's kingdom, what do we promise to do if we move beyond the reach of this church?

Congregation: We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church of this faith, where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's Word.

All: Humbly confessing our past sins, we pray for grace and strength to keep these, our holy vows, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
