WELCOME IN THE NAME OF OUR RISEN LORD

Welcome to Trinity! Today in the Divine Service God proclaims to us through Word and Sacrament the forgiveness, love, and salvation that He has won for us through the death and resurrection of His Son Jesus Christ. If you are new to Trinity or looking for a church home, we invite you to join our family. Please introduce yourself to our Pastors following the service. After the 8:00 a.m. worship service, please join us for coffee, fellowship, and Christian Education. At various points in the service you will be invited to refer to our hymnal, the Lutheran Service Book or LSB (image to the right), located on the back of the seat in front of you.

LARGE PRINT BULLETINS are available for persons with vision difficulties.

WORSHIPPING WITH OUR CHILDREN

All Saints' Day is always the first Sunday in November when we remember and honor all of those who have died with faith in Jesus and are now with Him in heaven. The word "saint" comes from a Latin word meaning "holy" or "sacred". Saints are God's holy people. All of God's faithful people are His saints – everyone who believes in Jesus as their Savior from sin! Jesus is the one who makes us holy! Jesus is the one who makes us a saint!

"Rest for the Weary"

by Benjamin M. Culli

*A rest remains for all the weary; arise, sad heart, and grieve no more;
Though long the way, and dark and dreary, it opens to the golden shore.
Before His throne the Lamb will lead you, on heav'nly pastures He will feed you,
Cast off your burden, come with haste; soon toil and strife will be unraveled,
The weary way that you have traveled, sweet is the rest that you will taste.*

*The Father's house has many a dwelling, and there for you a place will be.
With perfect love His heart is welling who loved you from eternity.
His precious blood the Lamb has given that you may share the joys of heaven,
And now He calls out far and near: "You weary souls, cast off your sorrow;
My light shines bright upon the morrow. Come, sweetest rest awaits you here!"*

*There rest and peace in endless measure will be ours through eternity;
No grief, no care, will mar our pleasure, and untold joy our lot will be.
Oh, had we wings to hasten yonder— No more this sinful world to ponder—
To join the glad, triumphant band! Arise, my soul, forget all sadness,
For peace awaits you, joy and gladness— The perfect rest and promised land.*

First Reading

Revelation 7:9-17

⁹After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, ¹⁰and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" ¹¹And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

¹³Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?" ¹⁴I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

¹⁵"Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. ¹⁶They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. ¹⁷For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

+ We Respond to God's Word +

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life ✠ everlasting. Amen.

Communion Statement

As a Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod (LCMS) church, we believe and confess that through the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper we receive the true body and blood of Christ in, with, and under the elements of bread and wine. As we commune with faith and repentance, we receive the forgiveness of sins and power to amend our sinful lives. If you would like to commune with us but are not a member of a church in fellowship with the LCMS, we ask that you schedule a visit with our pastor before communing. Our communion practice is not intended to exclude anyone, but rather to make certain that we, in love, faithfully administer the sacrament according to Christ's institution.

If you are not communing, but wish to come forward to receive a blessing, please fold both arms across your heart. Children are also encouraged to come forward for a blessing.
