

Psalm 19

God Revealed Through Creation

We all love a good story!

Mark 4:2 (MSG) “He taught by using stories, many stories.”

“I take this to be the greatest poem in the Psalter and one of the greatest lyrics in the world.”

– C. S. Lewis

Psalm 19:1 (NIV) “The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.”

“If holy describes God as a way beyond anything we can imagine or approach, glory describes that which is here, close, evidential. I can see glory, touch it, weigh it. Glory in Hebrew literally means ‘weighty,’ something that has substance to it.”

– Eugene Peterson

What story is creation telling about God?

Psalm 19:2-4a (NIV) “Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they reveal knowledge. <sup>3</sup>They have no speech, they use no words; no sound is heard from them. <sup>4a</sup>Yet their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.”

1. Creation tells of God’s great constancy.

Are we listening?

Psalm 19:4b-6 (NIV) “In the heavens God has pitched a tent for the sun. <sup>5</sup>It is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, like a champion rejoicing to run his course. <sup>6</sup>It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is deprived of its warmth.”

2. Creation tells of God’s great care.

Are we listening?
