Romans 8

¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is going to be revealed to us.

¹⁹ For the creation eagerly waits with anticipation for God's sons to be revealed.

Romans 8

²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility—not willingly, but because of him who subjected it—in the hope ²¹ that the creation itself will also be set free from the bondage to decay into the glorious freedom of God's children. ²² For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together with labor pains until now.

Romans 8

Psalm 46

¹ God is our refuge and strength, a helper who is always found in times of trouble.
² Therefore we will not be afraid, though the earth trembles and the mountains topple into the depths of the seas, ³ though its water roars and foams and the mountains quake with its turmoil.

Psalm 46

⁴ There is a river — its streams delight the city of God, the holy dwelling place of the Most High. ⁵ God is within her; she will not be toppled. God will help her when the morning dawns. ⁶ Nations rage, kingdoms topple; the earth melts when he lifts his voice. ⁷ The Lord of Armies is with us; the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Philippians 2

⁹ For this reason God highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow — in heaven and on earth and under the earth — ¹¹ and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
