

A classical painting depicting a scene of healing. Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a white robe, is seated and looking down at a man. The man, with a pale, weathered face and a withered, shriveled arm, is reaching out towards Jesus. Other figures are visible in the background, including a man in a red robe and another in a blue robe, all in a dimly lit, stone-walled interior.

Luke 14

⁷ He told a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they would choose the best places for themselves: ⁸ “When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, don’t sit in the place of honor, because a more distinguished person than you may have been invited by your host. ⁹ The one who invited both of you may come and say to you, ‘Give your place to this man,’ and then in humiliation, you will proceed to take the lowest place. Luke 14

¹⁰ “But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when the one who invited you comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ You will then be honored in the presence of all the other guests. ¹¹ For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Luke 14

¹² He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you give a lunch or a dinner, don't invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors, because they might invite you back, and you would be repaid.

¹³ On the contrary, when you host a banquet, invite those who are poor, maimed, lame, or blind. ¹⁴ And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Proverbs 25

⁶ Don't boast about yourself before the king, and don't stand in the place of the great; ⁷ for it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here!"
than to demote you in plain view of a noble.

⁶ But he gives greater grace. Therefore he says: God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.
