Moses' Wish

years in the Heart of Cabot, serving Christ and Loving people...

Numbers 11:24–30

²⁴Moses went out and told the people the words of the Lord. He brought seventy men from the elders of the people and had them stand around the tent. ²⁵Then the Lord descended in the cloud and spoke to him. He took some of the Spirit who was on Moses and placed the Spirit on the seventy elders. As the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they never did it again.

Numbers 11:24-30

²⁶Two men had remained in the camp, one named Eldad and the other Medad; the Spirit rested on them – they were among those listed, but had not gone out to the tent – and they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷A young man ran and reported to Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

Numbers 11:24–30

²⁸Joshua son of Nun, assistant to Moses since his youth, responded, “Moses, my lord, stop them!”

²⁹But Moses asked him, “Are you jealous on my account? If only all the Lord’s people were prophets and the Lord would place his Spirit on them!” ³⁰Then Moses returned to the camp along with the elders of Israel.

Joel 2:28–32

²⁸After this (in the last days)
I will pour out my Spirit on all humanity;
then your sons and your daughters will prophesy, your old men will have dreams,

and your young men will see visions.

²⁹I will even pour out my Spirit
on the male and female slaves in those days. (and they will prophesy)

darkness

and the moon to blood
before the great and terrible

³²Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved, . . .

Acts 2:14–21

¹⁴Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed to them, “Fellow Jews and all you residents of Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words. ¹⁵For these people are not drunk, as you suppose, since it’s only nine in the morning. ¹⁶On the contrary, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

Acts 2:14-21

¹⁷And it will be (“afterwards”) in the last days, says God,

that I will pour out my Spirit on all people;

then your sons and your daughters will prophesy,

your young (old) men will see visions,

and your old (young) men will dream dreams.

¹⁸I will even pour out my Spirit on my servants in those days, both men and women

(and they will prophesy. “duplicated” from v.17)

Romans 10:14–15 (NLT)

¹⁴But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? ¹⁵And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, “How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!”
