⁴ Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Please, come near me,” and they came near. “I am Joseph, your brother,” he said, “the one you sold into Egypt.”
⁵ And now don’t be grieved or angry with yourselves for selling me here, because God sent me ahead of you to preserve life.

⁶ For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there will be five more years without plowing or harvesting. ⁷ God sent me ahead of you to establish you as a remnant within the land and to keep you alive by a great deliverance. ⁸ Therefore it was not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

¹¹ In that day I will restore the fallen shelter of David: I will repair its gaps, restore its ruins, and rebuild it as in the days of old, ¹² so that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations that bear my name — this is the declaration of the Lord; he will do this.

¹ I ask, then, has God rejected his people? Absolutely not! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. ² God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah — how he pleads with God against Israel?

¹⁵ And the words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written: ¹⁶ After these things I will return and rebuild David's fallen tent. I will rebuild its ruins and set it up again,

¹⁷ so the rest of humanity may seek the Lord — even all the Gentiles who are called by my name — declares the Lord who makes these things ¹⁸ known from long ago. ¹⁹ Therefore, in my judgment, we should not cause difficulties for those among the Gentiles who turn to God...

¹² I will indeed gather all of you, Jacob; I will collect the remnant of Israel. I will bring them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in the middle of its pasture. It will be noisy with people.

⁶ On that day — this is the Lord's declaration — I will assemble the lame and gather the scattered, those I have injured. ⁷ I will make the lame into a remnant, those far removed into a strong nation. Then the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion from this time on and forever. ⁸ And you, watchtower for the flock, fortified hill of Daughter Zion, the former rule will come to you; sovereignty will come to Daughter Jerusalem.

FROM EXILE TO VICTORY

⁹ Now, why are you shouting loudly? Is there no king with you? Has your counselor perished so that anguish grips you like a woman in labor?

¹⁰ Writhe and cry out, Daughter Zion, like a woman in labor, for now you will leave the city and camp in the open fields. You will go to Babylon; there you will be rescued; there the Lord will redeem you from the grasp of your enemies!

FROM EXILE TO VICTORY

¹¹ Many nations have now assembled against you; they say, "Let her be defiled, and let us feast our eyes on Zion." ¹² But they do not know the Lord's intentions or understand his plan, that he has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing floor. ¹³ Rise and thresh, Daughter Zion, for I will make your horns iron and your hooves bronze so you can crush many peoples. Then you will set apart their plunder for the Lord, their wealth for the Lord of the whole earth.

⁷ Then the remnant of Jacob will be among many peoples like dew from the Lord, like showers on the grass, which do not wait for anyone or linger for mankind. ⁸ Then the remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, among many peoples, like a lion among animals of the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep, which tramples and tears as it passes through, and there is no one to rescue them.
