ISAIAH

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

¹ I will sing about the one I love, a song about my loved one's vineyard: The one I love had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. ² He broke up the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted it with the finest vines. He built a tower in the middle of it and even dug out a winepress there. He expected it to yield good grapes, but it yielded worthless grapes.

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

³ So now, residents of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard. ⁴ What more could I have done for my vineyard than I did? Why, when I expected a yield of good grapes, did it yield worthless grapes?

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

⁵ Now I will tell you what I am about to do to my vineyard: I will remove its hedge, and it will be consumed; I will tear down its wall, and it will be trampled. ⁶ I will make it a wasteland. It will not be pruned or weeded; thorns and briers will grow up. I will also give orders to the clouds that rain should not fall on it.

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

⁷ For the vineyard of the Lord of Armies is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah, the plant he delighted in. He expected justice but saw injustice; he expected righteousness but heard cries of despair.

ISAIAH

Woe #1 - GREED

Isaiah 5

⁸ Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field until there is no more room and you alone are left in the land. ⁹ I heard the Lord of Armies say: Indeed, many houses will become desolate, grand and lovely ones without inhabitants. ¹⁰ For a ten-acre vineyard will yield only six gallons of wine, and ten bushels of seed will yield only one bushel of grain.

ISAIAH

Woe #2 – Dissipation Drunkenness

Isaiah 5

⁸ Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field until there is no more room and you alone are left in the land. ⁹ I heard the Lord of Armies say: Indeed, many houses will become desolate, grand and lovely ones without inhabitants. ¹⁰ For a ten-acre vineyard will yield only six gallons of wine, and ten bushels of seed will yield only one bushel of grain.

ISAIAH

Dire Results of God's People's Unfaithfulness

Isaiah 5

¹⁴ Therefore Sheol enlarges its throat and opens wide its enormous jaws, and down go Zion's dignitaries, her masses, her crowds, and those who celebrate in her! ¹⁵ Humanity is brought low, each person is humbled, and haughty eyes are humbled.

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

¹⁶ But the Lord of Armies is exalted by his justice, and the holy God demonstrates his holiness through his righteousness.

¹⁷ Lambs will graze as if in their own pastures, and resident aliens will eat among the ruins of the rich.

ISAIAH

Woe #3 – Brazen Defiance

Isaiah 5

¹⁸ Woe to those who drag iniquity with cords of deceit and pull sin along with cart ropes, ¹⁹ to those who say, “Let him hurry up and do his work quickly so that we can see it! Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel take place so that we can know it!”

ISAIAH

Woe #4 – Morally Perverse

Isaiah 5

²⁰ Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness, who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

ISAIAH

Woe #5 – Morally Perverse

Isaiah 5

²¹ Woe to those who consider themselves wise and judge themselves clever.

ISAIAH

Woe #5 – Morally Perverse

Isaiah 5

²¹ Woe to those who consider themselves wise and judge themselves clever. ²² Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, who are champions at pouring beer, ²³ who acquit the guilty for a bribe and deprive the innocent of justice.

ISAIAH

Woe #5 – Morally Perverse

Woe #6 – corrupted courage

Isaiah 5

²¹ Woe to those who consider themselves wise and judge themselves clever. ²² Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, who are champions at pouring beer, ²³ who acquit the guilty for a bribe and deprive the innocent of justice.

Extreme Prophetic Warning Ahead!

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

²⁴ Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes straw and as dry grass shrivels in the flame, so their roots will become like something rotten and their blossoms will blow away like dust, for they have rejected the instruction of the Lord of Armies, and they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

²⁵ Therefore the Lord's anger burned against his people. He raised his hand against them and struck them; the mountains quaked, and their corpses were like garbage in the streets. In all this, his anger has not turned away, and his hand is still raised to strike.

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

²⁶ He raises a signal flag for the distant nations and whistles for them from the ends of the earth. Look — how quickly and swiftly they come! ²⁷ None of them grows weary or stumbles; no one slumbers or sleeps. No belt is loose and no sandal strap broken.

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

²⁸ Their arrows are sharpened, and all their bows strung. Their horses' hooves are like flint; their chariot wheels are like a whirlwind.

²⁹ Their roaring is like a lion's; they roar like young lions; they growl and seize their prey and carry it off, and no one can rescue it.

ISAIAH

Isaiah 5

³⁰ On that day they will roar over it, like the roaring of the sea. When one looks at the land, there will be darkness and distress; light will be obscured by clouds.
