

Going Forward (Pt. 1)

Exodus 33:1-17

We Have a Need We Cannot Overlook (33:1-6).

A dramatic landscape featuring a snow-capped mountain peak under a sunset sky. The sky is filled with colorful, ethereal clouds in shades of orange, pink, and purple. The mountain's peak is partially covered in snow, and the overall scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of the setting sun.

We Have a Privilege We Must Not Neglect
(33:7-11).

A landscape photograph featuring a prominent mountain peak in the center, partially shrouded in mist or low clouds. The sky is a vibrant mix of colors, including shades of blue, purple, and orange, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The foreground is dominated by a thick layer of white and light-colored clouds, creating a sense of depth and atmosphere. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

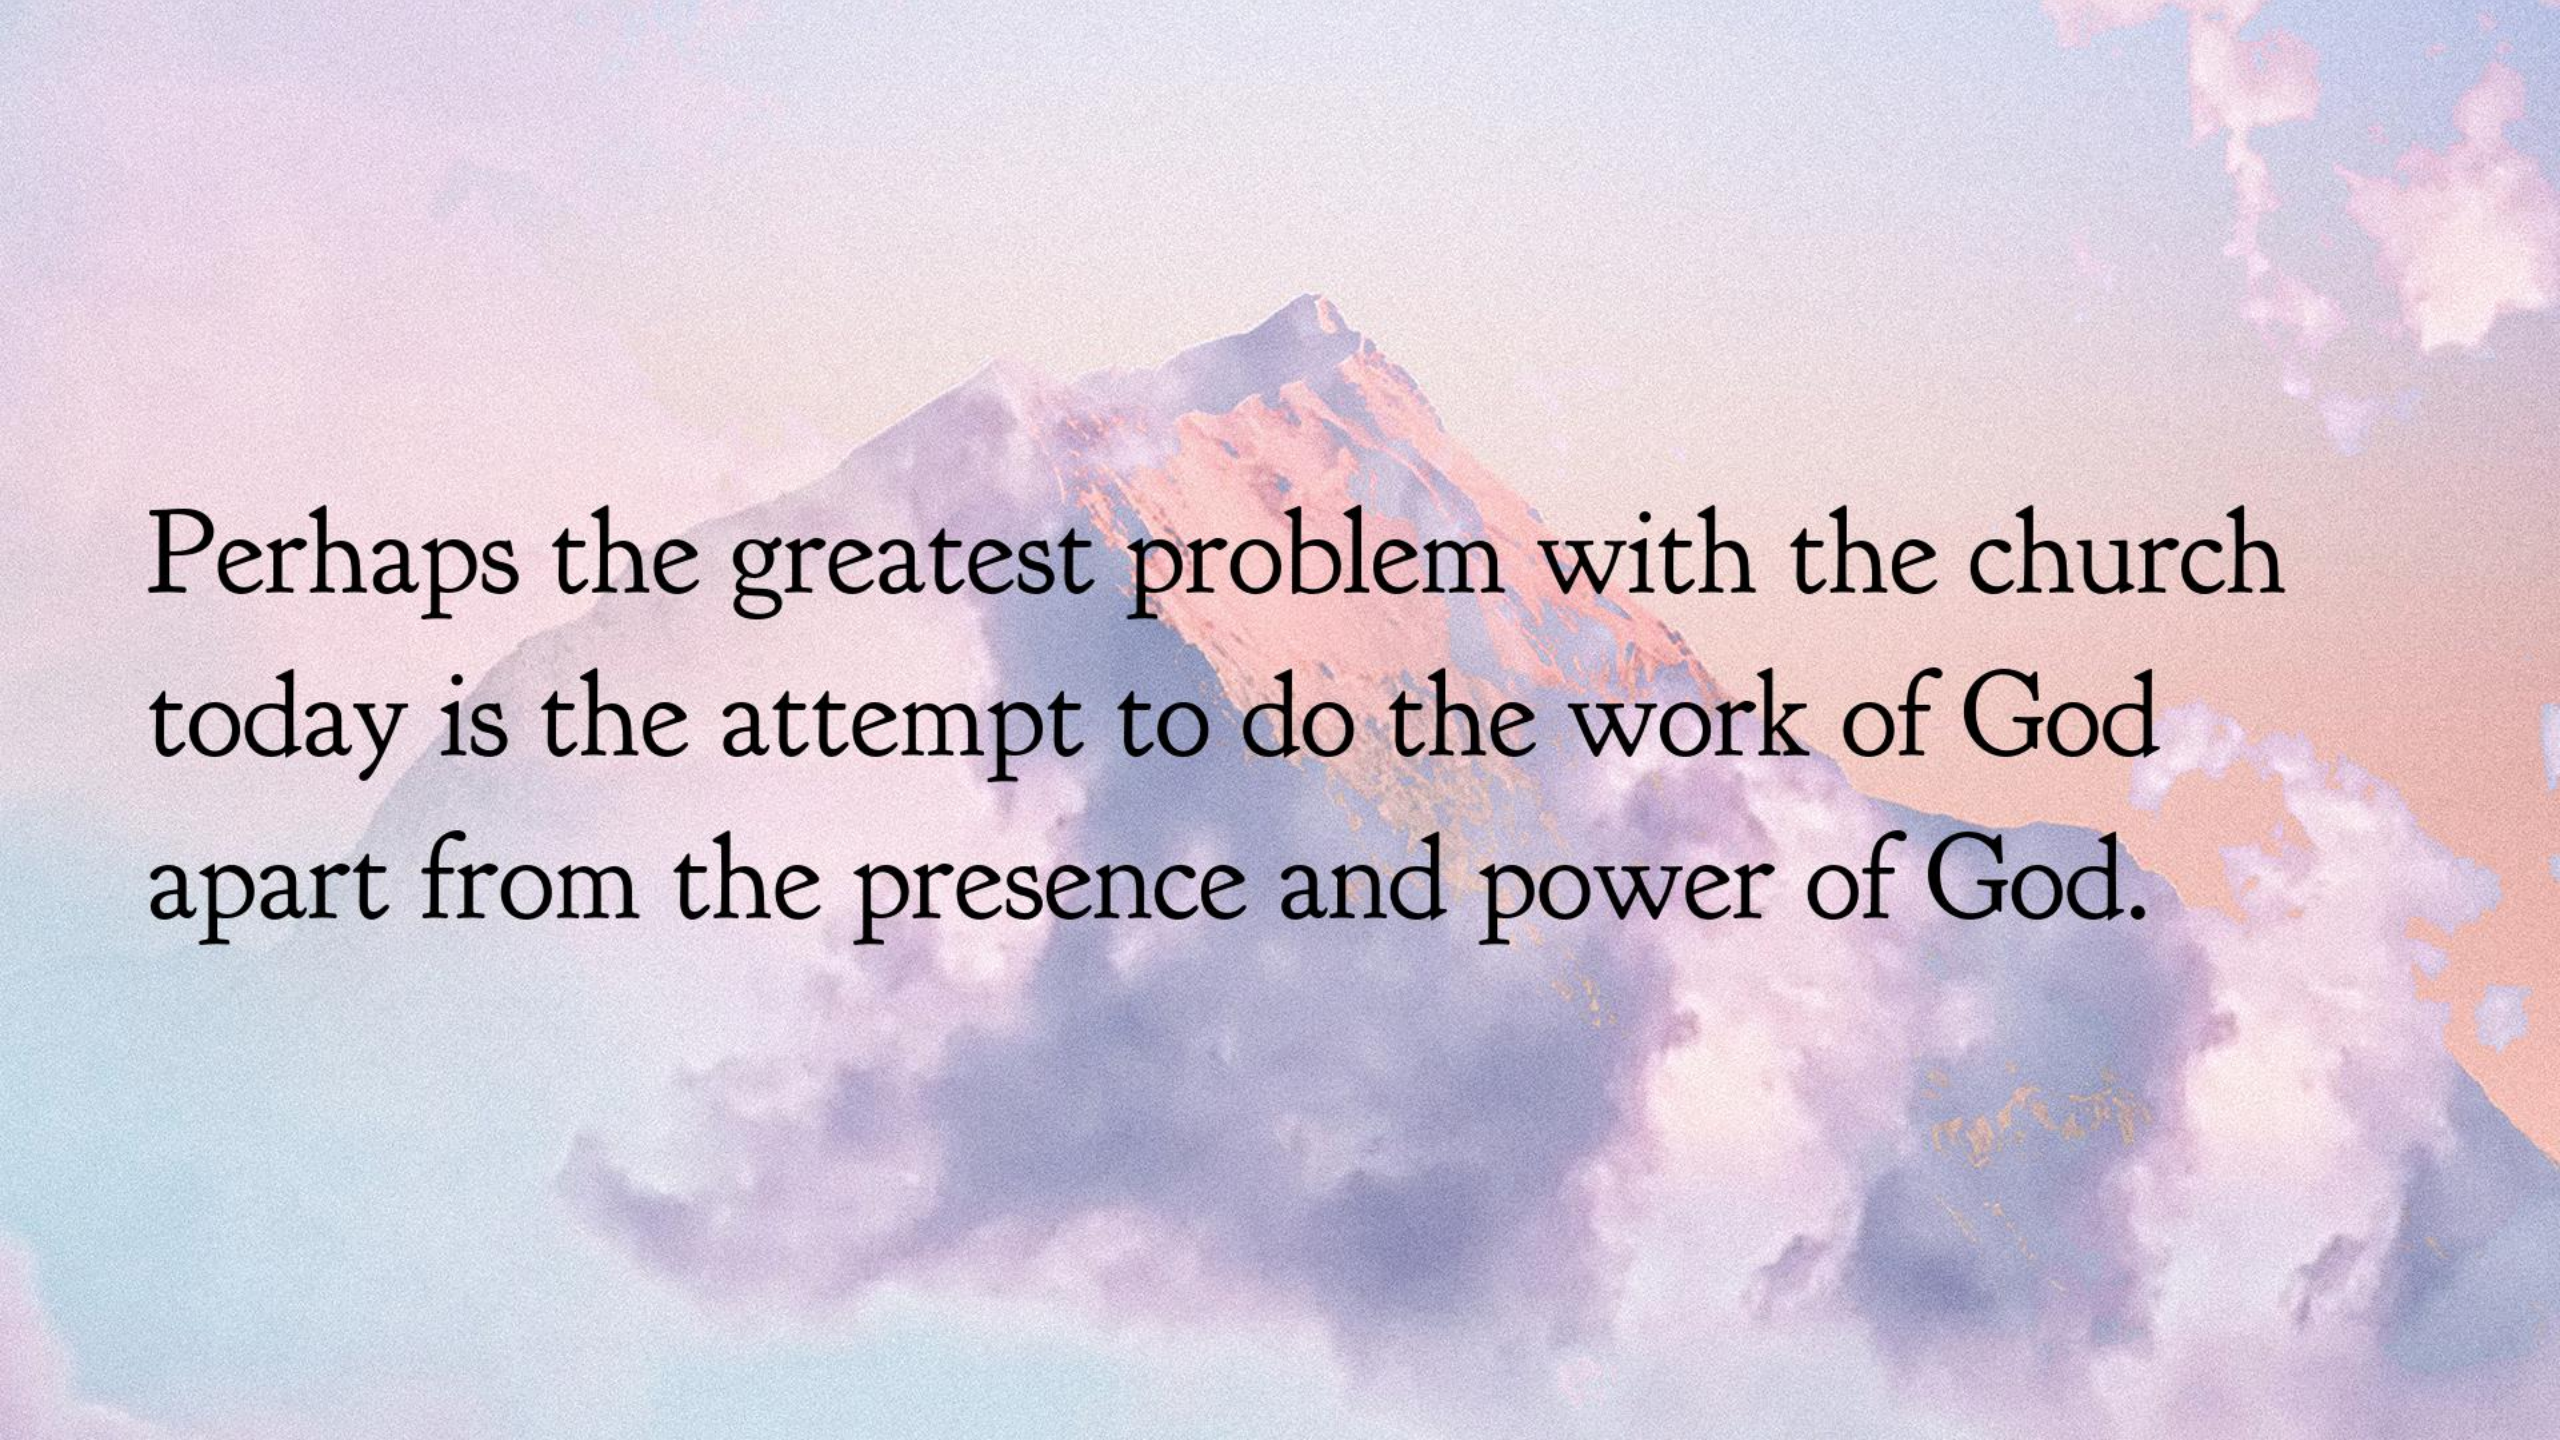

As believers in Jesus Christ, we have immediate access to God thorough the Spirit.

We Have an Assignment We Cannot Complete (33:12-16).

A dramatic landscape featuring a prominent, snow-capped mountain peak in the center. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of blue, purple, and orange, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

Perhaps the greatest problem with the church today is the attempt to do the work of God apart from the presence and power of God.

If you trust in Christ, you are united with Christ, and God is pleased with you because He is pleased with His Son.
