Acts 25

Paul's Defense pt. 2

The background is a textured, cracked surface in shades of brown and orange, resembling ancient parchment or a map. A dark, irregular shape represents the Eastern Mediterranean region. Overlaid on this are glowing orange lines with small circular nodes at their endpoints. One line starts in the upper left, passes through a node, and ends at a bright, multi-pointed starburst in the center-right. Another line starts from the left, passes through a node, and ends at a node labeled 'EPHESUS'. A third line starts from the right, passes through a node labeled 'ANTIOCH', and ends at the same central starburst. The text 'The answer to our fear is faith.' is centered in white.

The answer to our fear is faith.

ANTIOCH

EPHESUS

The background is a textured, brownish-gold surface resembling cracked earth or parchment. A dark blue, irregular shape represents a body of water, likely the Mediterranean Sea. Overlaid on this is a network of glowing orange-yellow lines. One line starts from the left, curves upwards, and then downwards towards a point labeled 'EPHESUS'. Another line starts from the right, curves downwards, and then upwards towards a point labeled 'ANTIOCH'. These two lines intersect at a bright, multi-pointed starburst glow located between the two city labels. The text 'We should be fearless because God is in control.' is centered in white, bold, sans-serif font.

We should be fearless because God is in control.

EPHESUS

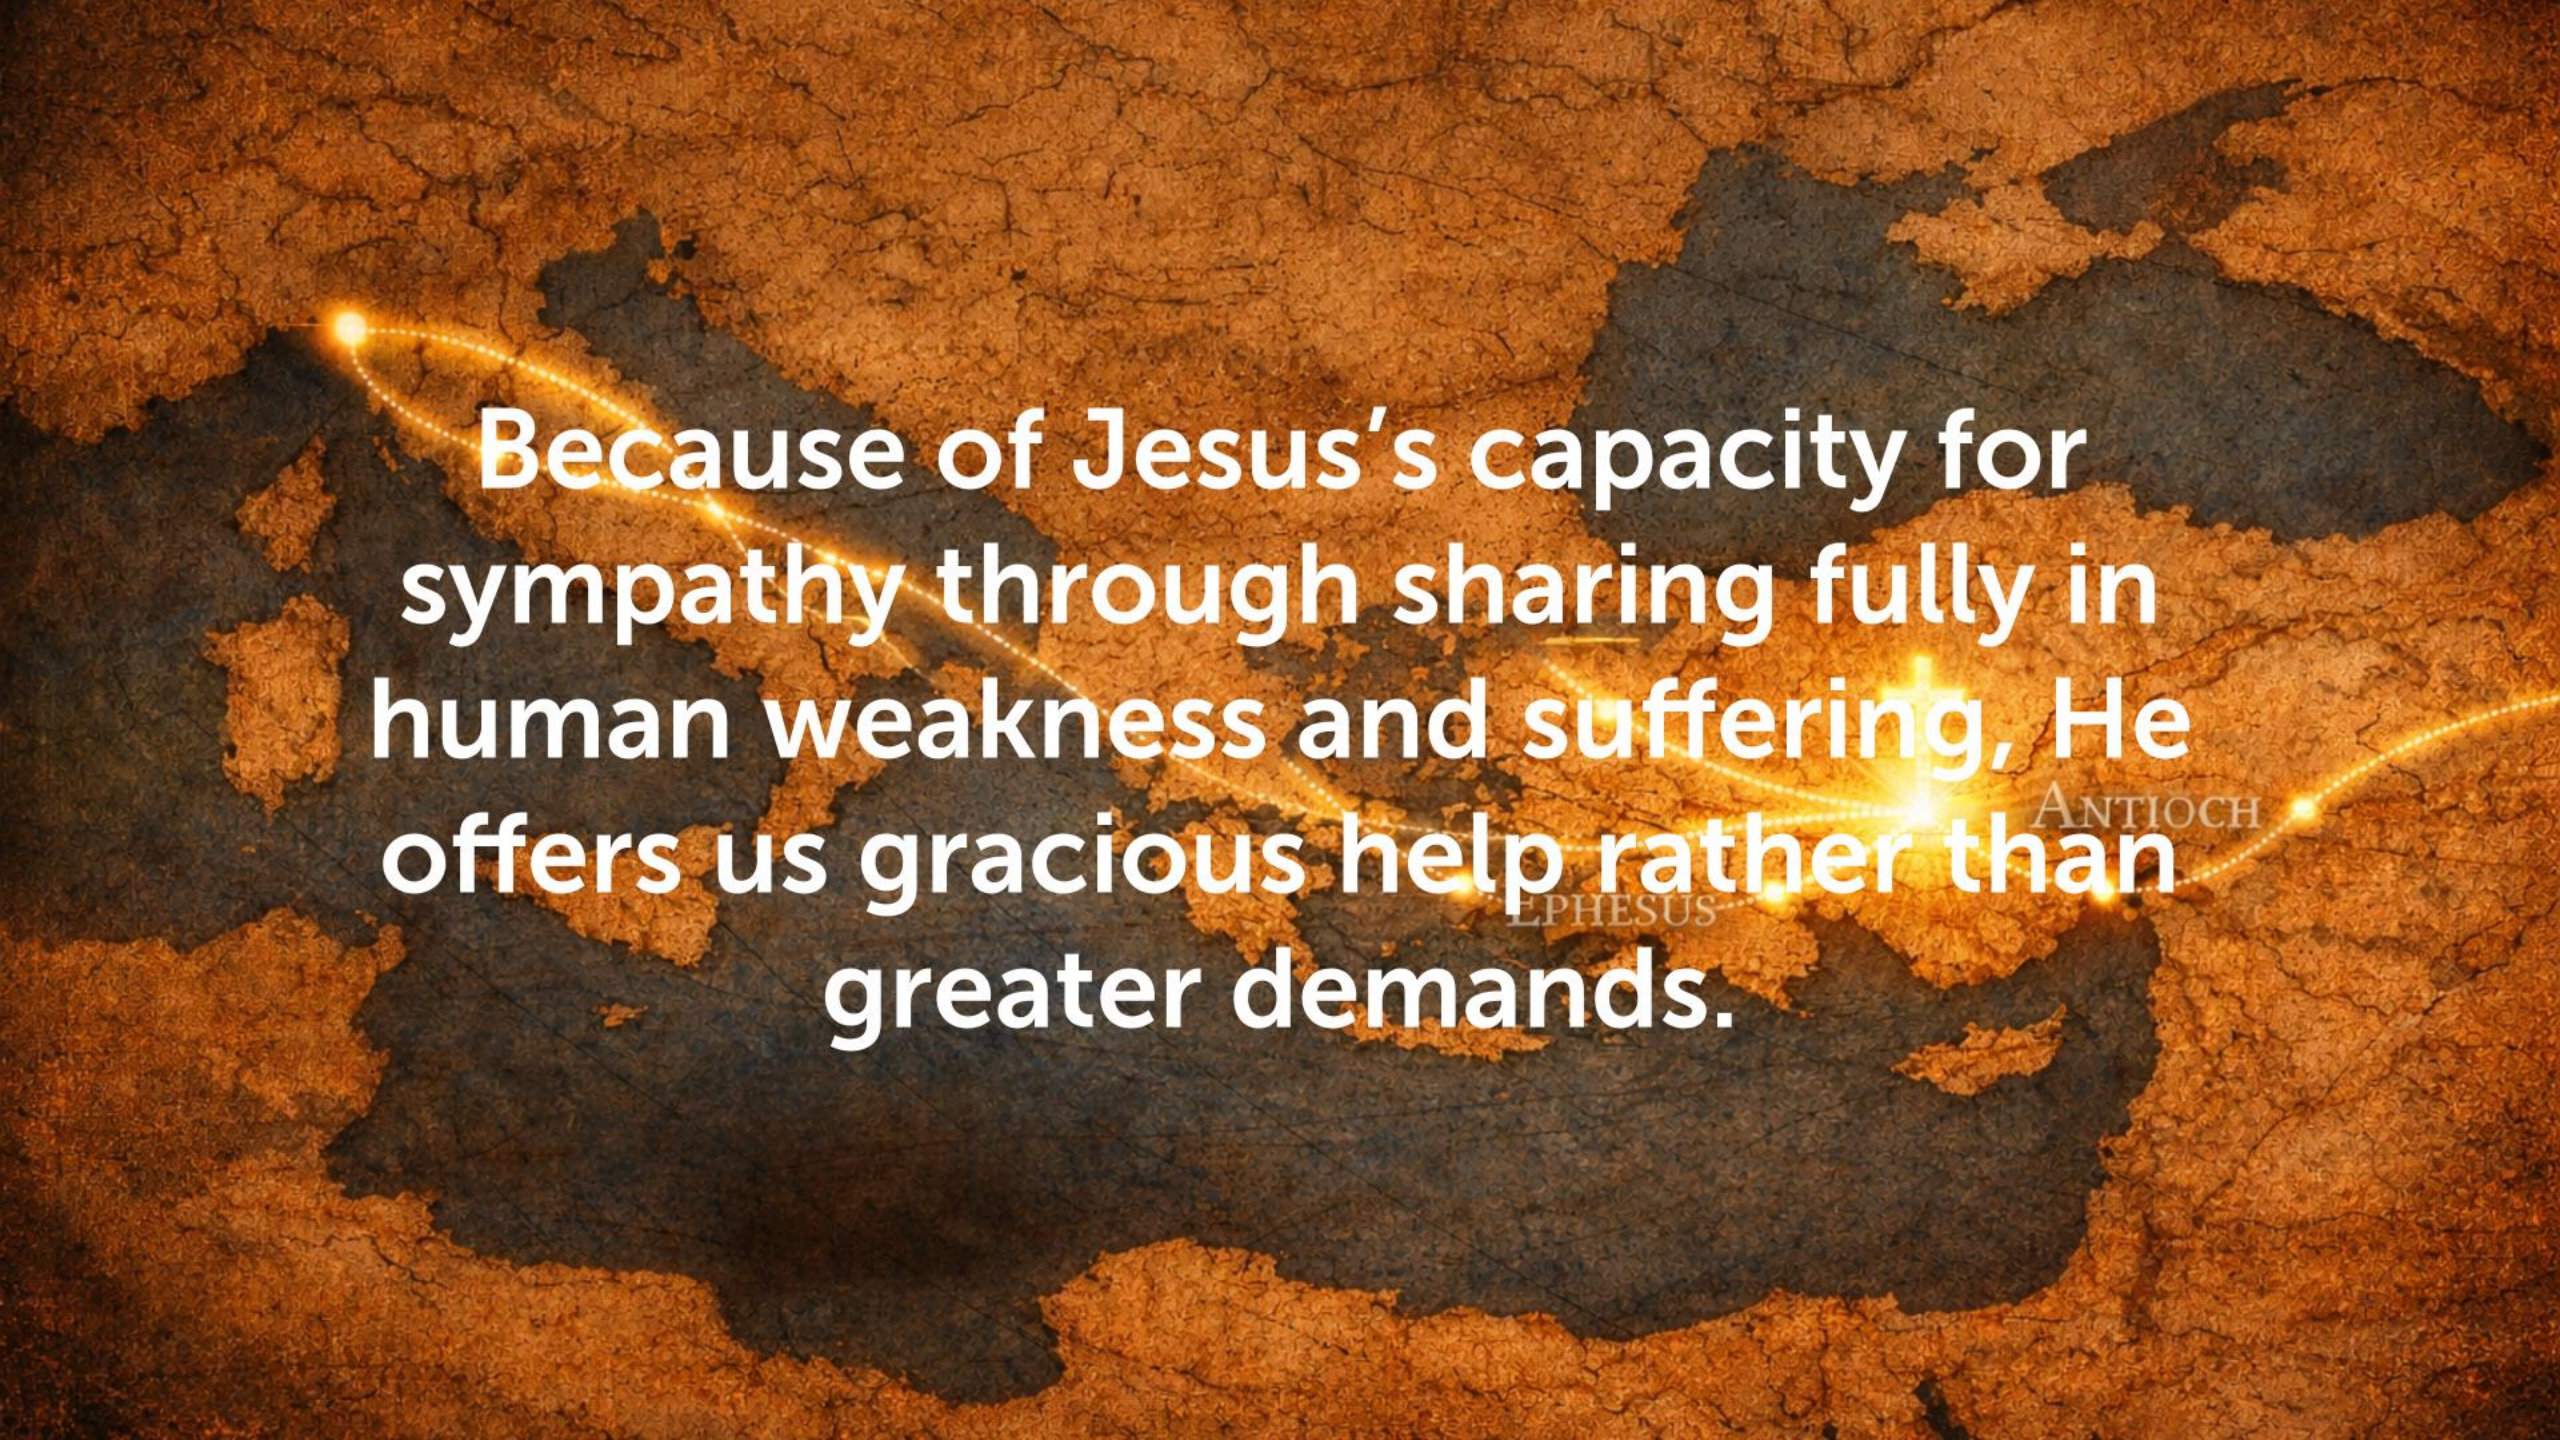

ANTIOCH

The background is a map of the Eastern Mediterranean region, including parts of Turkey, Syria, and Iraq. The landmasses are depicted in a textured, brownish-gold color, while the surrounding water bodies are a dark, mottled blue. A series of glowing yellow-orange stars are connected by a dotted line, forming a path that starts in the upper left, curves around the text, and then branches out towards the right, ending near the city of Antioch. The text "Fear of disobedience to God is the healthy fear." is centered in a white, sans-serif font.

Fear of disobedience to God is the healthy fear.

ANTIOCH

EPHESUS

Because of Jesus's capacity for sympathy through sharing fully in human weakness and suffering, He offers us gracious help rather than greater demands.
