

Make Disciples

Matthew 28:18-20

The Great Command is inseparable from the Great Commission.

Jesus' authority means that this commission is not optional; it is the high mark for a healthy Christian.

Jesus has power because He is the perfect substitute.

"It will not do to say that you have no special call to go... With these facts before you and with the command of the Lord Jesus to go and preach the Gospel to every creature, you need rather to ascertain whether you have a special call to stay home." - Hudson Taylor

The background is a blurred photograph of a hand holding a camera. The camera is dark, and the hand is in the foreground, slightly out of focus. A white text overlay is centered on the image.

Persecution follows proclamation.

3 reasons why people fail to prioritize the Great Commission:

1. They privatize their faith
2. They determine it is secondary to their mission.
3. They believe it is someone else's mission.

The chief end of missions is God's glory!
