Going Forward (Pt. 2)

Exodus 33:18-40:38

A dramatic landscape featuring a mountain peak with a snow-capped summit. The sky is filled with large, billowing white and grey clouds, with a warm, golden light emanating from behind the clouds, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall scene is atmospheric and majestic.

Moses was being protected from God by God;
that is grace.

We get a glimpse of God's glory when we get an understanding of His name.

A dramatic landscape featuring a mountain peak with a snow-capped summit. The sky is a mix of soft pinks, oranges, and blues, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The foreground is dominated by large, billowing clouds in shades of white, pink, and blue. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

How do you reconcile His justice and His love?
It is reconciled at the cross.

There is something remarkably different about a person who has been with God.

Through Christ and in Christ, we gaze on the glory of God.

A photograph of a mountain peak, likely Mount Everest, with a sunset sky. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue, with white and grey clouds. The mountain is dark, with some snow or ice visible on its slopes. The text is overlaid on the image.

When we give, we show that we have been moved by His grace.

We must use what we have for the mission of God and for the glory of God.

A dramatic landscape featuring a mountain peak on the left and a large, billowing cloud formation on the right. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall scene is atmospheric and majestic.

The Tabernacle and all its glory point to the glory of God in Christ.
