

More Than Conquerors

Joshua 10:16 -12:24

The Christian life is not an occasional skirmish, but a constant battle.

The reason we struggle to experience joy in our trials is not that the enemy is too strong, but because our understanding of the gospel is too weak.

Gilgal isn't just personal—it's communal. It was a place where God's people gathered.

To be more than conquerors, we must commit to completing
the mission.
