

Love Well

Matthew 22:37-40

You are not saved because you obey. You obey because you are saved.

Jesus fulfilled the law in that he kept it perfectly, but also filled out our understanding of it.

The law is fulfilled by love, not replaced by love.

Law without love devolves into legalism.

Love without law devolves into liberalism.

When we see and understand who we are through the love of God, it informs how we ought to love others.

Jesus isn't replacing the commandments; He is summarizing them for us.
