

Luke 1:57-66
For the week of 9/22/2024

Reflection

1. What were some of the takeaways for you, from Sunday's sermon?

2. Compare verse 57 to the previous verse 13. What is the correlation between what the angel Gabriel said and what took place?

3. Compare verse 58 to verses 14. What is Luke conveying to his reader(s)?

4. Is God faithful? Why or why not? What scriptures support your answer(s)?

Read verses 59-63.

Note: Most scholars believed the writing tablet of the time to be a wood tablet covered in wax.

5. What was Luke describing in these verses? What was the conflict? How was it finally resolved?

6. Compare verse 64 with verse 20. What was prophesied by the angel and how was it fulfilled?

Read verses 65 and 66.

7. What is Luke describing and why?

8. Why fear?

9. Why does Luke phrase his question "What then will this child be" instead of "Who then will this child be"?

10. When you experience God at work, are you more like Zechariah (blessing God) or of the neighbors (fear and questions)? Why?

11. What have you learned about God's character this week?
