Jesus... King, Servant, Man, God
Matthew - John
Week of November 2

1. What impacted you the most from the presentation/video? Why?

2. Bert compares looking at the four Gospels as peering into a diamond with many facets. What do you think he means by this, and how does it relate to our view of Jesus as presented in the four Gospel accounts?

3. How does the unique emphasis of each of the Gospels enhance one's understanding of the person and mission of Jesus?

4. In what ways do the Gospels portray the leadership of Jesus? How is this style of leadership different, or similar, to the kind of leadership our culture values?

5. How are we called to echo the servant-leadership of Jesus in our own lives? What does this look like for you practically in your daily rhythm and ministry context?

6. How would you summarize the message of the Gospels? Be sure to explain your reasoning.

7. Which of the Gospel stories influenced you the most through this study and why?
