The FLC Council forwarded the proposal of the First Lutheran Church Property Task Force to sell the white parsonage located at 403 8th Street for removal, not including the land on which it sits. The congregation voted to sell the house for removal. The congregation granted the council permission to decide upon the process by which we will sell the house and the proceeds from the sale of the house will be used to level the land at 403 8th Street and plant grass; any remaining funds will be placed into a fund for future development of the land.
