Hebrews 11:1-3

•Faith shows the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see. 2 Through their faith, the people in days of old earned a good reputation. 3 By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen.

Hebrews 11:1-3

In a sermon by A.W. Tozer, he said that faith gives substance to the promises of God. He went on to say that faith is demonstrated not defined. He gave the example of a father who told his son that he would get a bicycle on his tenth birthday. The boy knows his father will make good on his promise because he has in the past. He has faith in the promiser and that gives substance to the promise. That substance is his faith. The boy had not seen the bike because it had not yet been given to him, so the bike is unseen but is believed to be real because of his faith in his father.
