2 Corinthians 4:16-18

That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are[a] being renewed every day. 17 For our present troubles are small and won't last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever! 18 So we don't look at the troubles we can see now; rather, we fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen. For the things we see now will soon be gone, but the things we cannot see will last forever.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18

As we focus this week on the transformation we experience through Christ, we should also be encouraged by the eternal transformation that awaits us. The apostle Paul had endured many difficult trials, but he reminds us not to lose heart. We will experience very trying times as we stand for the cause of Christ. Through it all though, we can stand assured that it is preparing us for our heavenly inheritance, the completeness of our salvation, and the fullness of joy...which is beyond comparison. Though our earthly bodies may be weakening day by day, our inner self is being renewed!
