Mark 3:14-15

Our Scripture points to three important concepts of our faith. First, we have been appointed as servants of our Lord. Then, we have been called to a place of service. Finally, we have been sent into the mission of God as Jesus was sent. In living into these words of Jesus we begin to experience the life of a disciple. Discipleship is, as someone has said, “a long obedience in the same direction.” His calling is His promise to empower us for that for which He has called us! Appointed. Called. Sent. Empowered.
