Big Idea: Jesus Sees His People

Icebreaker: What are some things that have drastically changed in your lifetime?

Exodus 1:6-10, 15-16, 20-22

The new King of Egypt fears how numerous and powerful the Israelites are becoming and commands the killing of newborn boys. Though God has promised deliverance, it seems hopeless in their current circumstances, the Israelites are under bondage to the Egyptians. The midwives defied Pharaoh and refused to kill the boys and God blessed them for it.

- How have you experienced the brokenness of this world, the effects of sin and evil, and seen God remain faithful?
- How do we as Christians devalue the Imago Dei, image of God, in people around us?
- In what ways today do we have to fight the expectations of culture in order to obey God?

Exodus 2:1-15

- What actions revealed Moses' family's faith in God?
- What did Moses' actions reveal about his faith in God?

Overview

- How do you think it would have been for Joseph's sons to see his faith about God delivering them to the land He promised and then the Israelites are oppressed instead of delivered? What does this teach us about God?
- What foreshadowing of Jesus do we see in this passage?
