Ice Breaker: What are two things that you think should always go together? (Cookies and milk, pb and j, summer and days at the beach, etc...)

Big Idea: Witnesses do good works with the good news.

Acts 3:1-4

- Why is it significant that this chapter begins with Peter and John praying?
- What does this teach us about prayer?
- In what ways do you find prayer difficult? What truths can you remember to help you grow in your prayer life?
- What do we learn about the man in this story?
- What does the condition of the man reveal about us?
- Why do Peter and John ask the man to look at them?
- What is the difference between shame and guilt?

Acts 3:5-8

- How does the man respond once he is healed?
- What does this show us about God's greatest miracle?
- What do we learn about God from the healing of this man?

Acts 3:9-20

- What does the healing of the lame man reveal to the people around the temple?
- How does Peter respond to the people in verse 11?
- How is this different from modern day faith-healers?
- Why is it that we cannot separate the gospel from good works?
- Why should we make good works a priority in our lives?
- What good works are you pursuing as a means of going with the gospel?
