

JOSHUA

TEXT: Deuteronomy 34, Joshua 1

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- New building, new times. 2020 Old Mill Road. Services at 8:30am and 10:15am.
 - Parents: please be sure Redeemer has contact information and any allergy information on your children.
 - Reading guides for the new Joshua sermon series are available and encouraged.
 - Easter invitations. Start sharing the Easter video and inviting those in your lives to our Easter services.
-

Leading off...

1. What is your favorite hero story?
2. What do you like about Moses?
3. Why do you think God calls the Israelites to the promised land?
4. Why was Moses not allowed to lead his people into the promised land?

BIG IDEA: Jesus leads his people home.

Read Deuteronomy 18:15

5. How does Moses point to Jesus, and their lives actually parallel each other?

Read Deuteronomy 34:1-4

6. God always keeps His promises. We see this in these verses. However, it doesn't always play out as we want. What does this teach us?
7. Why is Moses actually not a hero?
8. What about us? What does this teach us about how God views sin?
9. Have you ever accused God of not being good and not meeting your needs?

Read Deuteronomy 34:5-8

10. What is significant about the death of Moses and what are some things for us to learn from these verses?
11. Discuss this statement: "God is not indifferent to the death of His believers."

Read Deuteronomy 34:9-12

12. What is Moses' succession plan to lead Israel?
13. Why does God allow Joshua to lead His people into the promised land?

Read Joshua 1:1-5

14. What are some of the great promises of God in these verses?
15. How do these promises relate to us and also point us to Christ?

Wrapping Up...

Read Joshua 1:6-8

16. Why is there an emphasis on Joshua's need to be strong and courageous?
17. What can we learn and apply from these verses?
18. In verse 7, what is the definition of being very strong and courageous?
19. Joshua will fail. We fail. How do our failures point us to Jesus?