Gather Us In

TFWS 2236 v. 1, 2, 4

*Call to Worship

Dennis Stegall, Liturgist

We come to worship the Lord of love and grace.

We find rest and belonging in God's wide embrace.

We come to worship the Lord of justice and truth.

We are challenged by Jesus to take a good, hard look at ourselves.

We recognize that the Lord of grace is the Lord of justice, the Lord of love is the Lord of truth.

Transform us by your power, Jesus.

This is God's house.

Cleanse it and cleanse us. Amen.

Call to Confession

Rev. Nancy Martin

Prayer of Confession

When we set up barriers that prevent others from knowing the truth of your love, forgive us and break down those walls. When we set up barriers in our own minds and lives that keep us from knowing the truth of your love, break down our walls with your grace. When we are confused by the world's wisdom, break through our muddled minds and shine the clarity of your teachings. Draw us ever closer to you, to one another, and to the beauty of your wisdom and your love. Amen.

Words of Forgiveness

Christ reduces the barriers we set up to dust and ashes that blow away to nothing in the power of his mercy and his grace. We are no longer divided or separated, but are united in the wisdom and the love of God. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Glory to God! Amen.

Joys and Concerns; Prayers of the People Rev. Nancy Martin

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Children's Moment

Rev. Nancy Martin

Children are welcome to come to the front to hear about the scripture we're focusing on today. Adults may accompany their child(ren). Children can also stay in their seats.

Hymn Seek Ye First UMH 405

Prayer of Illumination Dennis Stegall

Scripture John 2:13-25 (NRSVUE)

The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, with the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, "Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father's house a marketplace!" His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

When he was in Jerusalem during the Passover festival, many believed in his name because they saw the signs that he was doing. But Jesus on his part would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people and needed no one to testify about anyone, for he himself knew what was in everyone.

The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

Children are welcome in all aspects of our worship service. They can stay with their adult(s) or attend nursery or Children's Church. Nursery care is available starting at 9:45 AM for children four years old and under. Children's Church happens during our service, for those four years old through fifth grade, after the Children's Moment. Children learn more about the scripture we are focusing on in the worship service. Adults pick up their children after worship from the Children's Church room at the end of the Children's Corridor. All volunteers who work with children and youth have passed a background check, have been Safe Gatherings trained, and uphold our Safe Sanctuary policies and procedures.

Holy Communion: We, in the United Methodist Church, practice Open Communion, meaning anyone who loves Jesus, who earnestly repents of their sin, and seeks to live in peace with one another is welcome to the table. We use bread or crackers and grape juice, so as to have as inclusive a table as possible. Gluten free wafers and individual cups of grape juice are available on the stand between serving stations. Please place your empty cup in the bowl.

We have an offering plate in the back of the sanctuary as you exit the double doors. To give online, please scan this code using your smart phone's camera:

Rooted: Growing Deep in God's Word

Our 2026 churchwide theme is "Rooted: Growing Deep in God's Word."

Each month we're reading a book of the Bible together.

This month we're reading Ruth, Jonah, and Ecclesiastes. In July and August we'll focus on Isaiah.

Every Sunday we'll have a new handout providing background and context for the chapters we'll read that week. This info is on our website and app. Audio versions are also available on the app and website.

Scan the QR code to learn more:

There is a question box in the narthex to submit questions you have about what we're reading. Questions about the theme or any of its components? Email Pastor Nancy—revnancygmartin@gmail.com

Today is the last day to order Camp Fairview T-shirts:

You may have seen some folks wearing or picking up their Camp Fairview T-shirts. If you didn't get a chance to order one, don't despair! We're doing a second printing. Today is the last day to order. Shirts are Port & Company Core 100% cotton tees. The adult sizing appears to run similar to a Gildan heavy cotton shirt, but the youth sizing appears to run a little small. Scan the QR code to order. Refresh the page to order more than one. You get to choose the size and color. Huge thank you to Kathleen Boyle who designed the beautiful logo!
