OPENING HYMN

"Yes God is Real " # 361

1 There are some things I may not know, There are some places I can't go, But I am sure of this one thing
That God is real for I can feel Him deep within. [Refrain]

2 Some folks may doubt, some folks may scorn, All can desert and leave me alone,
But as for me I'll take God's part For God is real and I can feel Him in my heart. [Refrain]

3 I cannot tell just how you felt When Jesus took your sins away, But since that day, yes, since that hour
God has been real for I can feel His holy power. [Refrain]

[Refrain] Yes, God is real, real in my soul, Yes, God is real for He has washed and made me whole;
His love for me is like pure gold, Yes, God is real for I can feel Him in my soul.

Homework Read: Luke 4:22-30 How was Elijah sent to?

LaMott A.M.E. Church

1505 W. Cheltenham Ave. Elkins Park, PA 19027

By: Rev. Dr. Louis P. Attles, Pastor

Instruction: Read the text in your bible. Answer the questions; there is no wrong answer. The questions are designed to help you see what God is doing in your life. Think about what God is saying to you. Ask God to reveal things to you so you can grow and share with the group.

You can Text Your Questions to (973) 449-1104

The Power gives us a new vision for what provision really is. In 1 Kings 17:8–24, a widow in Zarephath sits with almost nothing—just a handful of flour and a little oil. God sends the prophet Elijah to her. She shares the last of her food with him, trusting God’s promise. Then tragedy strikes: her son dies. In the midst of grief, Elijah prays—and God brings the boy back to life. The natural situation was famine and death; the supernatural act was resurrection and hope.

This story ties the seen and unseen together: the seen is the empty jar, the unseen is God’s sustaining power. The woman’s obedience against all odds activates God’s provision. It shows God’s power not just in meeting need—but in raising hope, restoring life, and showing that defeat isn’t final.

Here, God reveals Himself as the One who cares deeply, acts powerfully, and invites participation in His work. He calls us to trust despite circumstances, give when we feel we have nothing, and believe that what God promises is stronger than what we see.

As you begin this study, reflect:

- Where in your life is need pressing in—and how is God inviting you to trust His power?
- What would it look like to give from what you have, trusting Him to replenish?
- How might God bring resurrection into a place you feel deserted?

The Power reminds us that God’s provision is more than supply—it’s transformative, life-giving, and alive.
