Instruction: Read the text in your bible. Answer the questions; there is no wrong answer. The questions are designed to help you see what God is doing in your life. Think about what God is saying to you. Ask God to reveal things to you so you can grow and share with the group.

The Praise invites us to adjust our vision from casual thanks to intentional worship. In 1 Chronicles 16:8–36, King David leads the people in a grand psalm of thanksgiving: "Give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name; make known among the nations what he has done." They not only give thanks, but they declare God's deeds among the nations, seek His face continually, and remember His marvelous works. The natural act of singing and giving thanks becomes a supernatural vision of God's redeeming story.

As the trees of the forest sing and the fields shout for joy, the visible world echoes the invisible truth of God's reign. The praise isn't just a response, it's a posture of seeing God at work, even when our own story might feel small.

God reveals Himself here as the One worthy of all honor and attention: "For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise." He calls us not only to thank Him because of what He's done, but to trust Him because of who He is.

As you embark on this study, reflect:

- What has God done in your life that you need to make known to others and to yourself?
- How often do you seek His face continually, as the psalm says?
- In what ways might your thankfulness shift into intentional praise that sees and honors God's presence?

The Praise reminds us that true gratitude isn't just a feeling it's a vision. It shifts our gaze from what we have to Whom we trust.
