Homework Read: Hebrews 11:13-19 What did Abraham use to pass the test?

LaMott A.M.E. Church

1505 W. Cheltenham Ave. Elkins Park, PA 19027

By: Rev. Dr. Louis P. Attles, Pastor

Instruction: Read the text in your bible. Answer the questions; there is no wrong answer. The questions are designed to help you see what God is doing in your life. Think about what God is saying to you. Ask God to reveal things to you so you can grow and share with the group.

You can Text Your Questions to (973) 449-1104

The Test casts a fresh vision over obedience and provision. When God calls Abraham to offer his beloved son, Isaac, on the altar, the natural scene is heart-shattering. Yet in the moment of extreme surrender, a ram appears—caught by its horns—and Abraham names the place “The Lord Will Provide.”

This story moves us from desperation to deliverance, from dependence on what we can see to trust in what God will ensure. The wood and the knife, the upraised hand and the answered call—they all become part of God’s larger plan. On Mount Moriah, what looks like loss becomes the place of provision. The natural act of obedience meets the supernatural heart of God.

God shows Himself here as our provider—not eventually, but in the exact moment we need Him. He doesn’t simply test for the sake of testing; He reveals that His promise is greater than our fear, and His provision bigger than our pain.

As you step into this study, consider:

- What “test” in your life is revealing your trust in God’s provision?
- Where are you being asked to surrender what you love to the God who provides?
- How might God be inviting you to stop depending on your resources and start depending on His?

The Test invites you to see every need not as a problem alone, but as an opportunity to experience God’s provision.
