Study 4: The Food

All are Welcome to Bible Study
Assembles at 7:20 p.m. Blessed by 7:35 p.m.

Homework Read: Matthew 14:13-21 Who did Jesus tell to feed the food?

LaMott A.M.E. Church

1505 W. Cheltenham Ave. Elkins Park, PA 19027

By: Rev. Dr. Louis P. Attles, Pastor

Instruction: Read the text in your bible. Answer the questions; there is no wrong answer. The questions are designed to help you see what God is doing in your life. Think about what God is saying to you. Ask God to reveal things to you so you can grow and share with the group.

You can Text Your Questions to (973) 449-1104

The Food invites us to widen our vision—from empty hands to overflowing abundance; from physical hunger to spiritual satisfaction. In John 6:1–21, a vast crowd follows Jesus into the wilderness. They’re hungry—not just for bread, but for hope. Jesus takes five loaves and two fish, gives thanks, and distributes them. All eat and are filled. Then the disciples gather twelve full baskets of fragments. The natural scene is a lunch on the hillside; the supernatural vision is of the Son of God providing for far more than physical need.

Jesus uses the little boy’s lunch to reveal God’s heart: our small offerings, in His hands, become abundant. He shows us that true provision is about connection to Him—the Living Bread who meets hunger deeper than the stomach. Rossing both the seen and unseen, the food on the grass becomes a sign of something eternal.

God reveals Himself here as generous Provider, who sees our hunger, calls us to sit, gives thanks, then gives more than we asked. He invites us to trust that no matter how small our “loaves and fishes” may seem, He can multiply them for His glory and our good.

As you begin this study, reflect:

- What hunger in your life is Jesus calling to satisfy beyond the physical?
- What small “offering” do you have that He might multiply for His purpose?
- How does knowing Jesus as the Living Bread change the way you look at your everyday needs?

The Food reminds us that when we connect with Christ, we discover that God not only meets our hunger—but transforms it into overflow.
