Hey everybody. Welcome back to the Christmas box journey of looking for the Messiah. Today is day four, and today we learned that he will be the scepter from Judah. See, God promised Abraham, formerly known as Abram, that all the world would be blessed through him because the Messiah, the seed of the woman, would come through his family line. And this promise was passed from Abraham to Isaac and to Jacob. And Jacob. His name was changed to Israel and his 12 sons became the 12 tribes of Israel. And Jacob's fourth son, Judah, we learned in the story, became the carrier of the Genesis three 15 promise. And so what does it mean that the scepter shall not depart from Judah? Well, a scepter is like a royal wand of a king. It's his ruling staff. It means that the right to rule the rule that we've been looking for since Genesis three, this rule will stay in Judah's line in Judah's family until the Messiah appears. And this one will be king and will rule forever. And so today we learned that he will be the scepter, the king's wand from Judah. Join us tomorrow for day five as we continue to look for the Messiah.
