Hey everybody. Welcome back to the Christmas Box journey of looking for the Messiah. Today is day 16, and today we learned that he will be at the right hand of the Father. Now in Psalm 110, which we're looking at today is yet another reflection from King David about the coming of his future son, the Future Seed, the Messiah. And so David Prophesies in this Psalm about the future ministry of the Messiah, who will one day sit at the right hand of the Father in heaven and make intercession between God and his people. In other words, the Messiah will serve as a priest according to the order of Melek, and in this way, he will serve until the Father tells him to stand up and come back to Earth to judge his enemies. This is the same judgment in fact, that we read about in Psalm two, which we learned about just a few days back, and so today we learned that he will be at the right hand of the Father. Join us tomorrow as we continue to look for the Messiah.
