The Myth of a Static Faith Ezekial 37:1–14

Pastor Jenny Gebhart, jennyg@churchbcc.org

All of us encounter places and situations, even people, in our work, that seem lifeless, completely beyond repair and redemption. But this is not what God sees - God calls Ezekiel to step into a lifeless situation, and asks him to prophesy a new vision to the things that appear utterly dead and forsaken. God uses US to usher God's own life-breath into even the driest, most lifeless places.

I. Our Reality: Bone Dry Valleys (v.1–3, 11)

II. Our Calling: Bold Prophecies (v. 4–10)

III. Our Future: Beautiful Re-Vision (v. 12–14)
