Last Week with Jesus

Psalm 23:5, Matthew 26

Pastor Jenny Gebhart, jennyg@churchbcc.org

The Good Shepherd, our Creator, cares for his own Son in beautiful ways as Jesus approaches the cross. And when we acknowledge that God does not always protect us from enemies, or suffering, or even death, that at times he may even lead us towards them, we can experience God's provision and mercy in their midst.

There are three symbols of God's provision in those intense moments of grief and suffering for Jesus leading up to his death:

I. A prepared table - full of enemies (Matt 26:20-31)

II. Anointing oil - for suffering (Matt 26:6-13)

III. A cup overflowing - with death and life (Matt 26:26-29,36-42)
