UPCOMING EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES AT BETHANY NORTHEAST

NORTHEAST LADIES' MORNING

May 19, 9am–1pm, Bethany Northeast bit.ly/NELadiesMorningRSVPForm

Join us for a morning of connection, brunching, and studying God's word together. We'll even be taking some walks together after brunch! Feel free to invite a friend or neighbor. Cost is $15. Register online!

RACIAL RECONCILIATION GROUP

May 20, 11:45am–2pm, Foxley's Home
karenfoxley@gmail.com

Join us every month for a time to study and discuss issues surrounding race and reconciliation. We'll meet as a group to have lunch together and study various issues and realities of racial reconciliation within our city. We'll start by diving into the book, White Awake, by Daniel Hill. Kids are welcome!

NORTHEAST ALL-CHURCH CAMPOUT

August 17–19, Camp Casey, (Whidbey)
bit.ly/CampoutRegistration2018

Save the date for a weekend of fun, fellowship, and worship with others from Bethany Northeast! Registration is now open. Contact Becca with questions.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

July 30–August 2, Bethany Northeast bit.ly/VBSRegistration2018

Kids Pre-K (4+) through 5th grade are invited to join us for Vacation Bible School this Summer! Registration is open now. Students 6th grade and up can register to be junior leaders!

We'd love your help in our kids classrooms this Summer! Sign up to serve once a month from June–August to give our regular volunteers support and rest. Contact Becca LaNasa.

Called to Extravagant Love

Luke 7:36–50 (NIV)

Pastor Jenny Gebhart, jennyg@churchbcc.org

God's extravagant love for us must first be received and understood. Only then will it be reflected outward – like a mirror-image to the world that reflects the same extravagance we have experienced.

The woman with the alabaster jar has three lessons for us about experiencing and reflecting this extravagant love:

I. Open-handed Acceptance (v. 47–48)

II. Bold Interruption (v. 36–40)

III. Extravagant Reflection (v. 44–47)
