GIVING TREE

Next week is the last week. Don't forget to stop in the Commons after the service.

Comfort and Justice and Joy, Good News!

Isaiah 61:1–3, 8–11

Pastor Anna Guerrero

1. Receive Comfort in the midst of Longing. (Isaiah 61:1-3a)

2. Hope together. (Isaiah 61:3b-4, 8-9)

3. Proclaim God's faithfulness. (Isaiah 61:9 and 11)

Response questions

1. Are you feeling like you are poor, or broken hearted, or captive, or blinded by something right now? (Metaphorically of physically)
2. In verse 3, there is a promise that God will comfort and provide for you in different ways. In response to your answer above, how would you like to see God comfort and provide for you?
3. In what ways are you being challenged for your faith to grow?
4. How can you proclaim the good news of God's comfort and provision for you to the people around you? How are fellow believers around you doing the same?
5. How can you be actively involved in proclaiming God's faithfulness to the next generation?
