A STUDY THROUGH ROMANS

Welcome

Welcome to the people of Beaumont's First Baptist Church; we're so glad you're here! God intentionally created each of us with a longing for community and a calling to serve others. We aspire to do life together like Jesus did with His disciples, and we would love for you to be a part of that ministry. After this service, you can find our Connect Crew at the Hub or in the Commons to ask questions and connect further.

The Commitment of a Rescuer (Romans 12:1-2)

#1. Your rescue creates a “Once and For All” _____.

Rom. 12:1a “Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God”

#2. Your rescue creates a “Once and For All” _____ (aorist tense).

Rom. 12:1b “to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship.”

#3. Your rescue demands “Everyday” _____ (present tense).

Rom. 12:2 “And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, to that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.”

In Response To God’s Calling

☐ For the first time I am trusting Jesus for forgiveness and leadership in my life.

☐ I need to be baptized. ☐ I need to pray with someone.

☐ I would like to become a member of this Faith Family.
