

PRAYING

FROM PAMPLIN

Missions Vision Virginia, ESL

People from 18 different countries have been a part of an English as a Second Language group at Chestnut Hill Baptist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia. These are folks without a church background and need English to survive in America.

Sirinya King was one of the first students to accept Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and be baptized. Jim and Jamie Pittman are ESL teachers that helped establish the International Fellowship in the basement of the church. Your generosity helps support ministries like this one and others across Virginia.

One way YOU can be involved is to participate in reaching the world in our communities (internationals who have come to the US) is to host or attend an English as a Second Language (ESL) Basic Training Workshop. These workshops are designed to equip your church to demonstrate the love of Christ, meet a need, and ultimately share the Gospel with internationals by helping them learn or improve their English skills.

If this interests you, see Pastor David for more information.

Deuteronomy 22

Pastor David Sexton

The big idea in Deuteronomy 22 is God's wisdom in creating a society that is just, caring, and responsible in its relationships with others, with nature, and with Himself.

These ancient words highlight principles that highlight the importance of our responsibility to maintain a just and orderly society. What are those principles?

Concern for Neighbors and Their Property (Verses 1-4)

Distinct Roles and Gender Distinctions (Verse 5)

Care for Creation (Verses 6-7)

Safety and Consideration for Others (Verses 8-12)

Protecting Marital Integrity (Verses 13-30)

Conclusion: The Heart of the Matter

Deuteronomy 22 is not just a chapter of old laws, rather it's God's interest in His people's love for community and relationships. In today's world, these principles are a beacon of hope and a roadmap for living. Let's remember, the Bible is not an antique; it's up-to-date.. Let's live it out, day by day, embodying these timeless truths.
