

Praying for Missions Africa

What's the one thing missionaries need to know? There are a lot of things. But, the main thing those missionaries must know intimately and well is the Bible. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary does just that.

Two of our missionaries, Thomas and Samantha, prepared for serving overseas by attending and graduating from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary — one of our six Bible-believing seminaries our church and many others support through the Cooperative Program. Southeastern cost Thomas and Samantha a lot less because of that support.

They went to China with their four kids and were able to serve three years before the government blacklisted them and they had to leave. Now they're in a Southeast Asian country, still sharing Christ with Chinese — in this case, Chinese immigrants. They're learning a third language to make their witness stronger.

Let's pray for Thomas and Samantha. And let's pray for Southeastern Seminary and its great ministry of equipping Kingdom workers for our nation and world.

Prayer Concerns from the Congregation

Government Leaders

- For wisdom for the justices of the Supreme Court as they hear arguments regarding the extent of the powers of federal agencies.
- For our state legislators now meeting in Richmond as they pursue their priorities for government funding.
- Appomattox Town Officials.

"How to Pray for One Another"

Colossians 1:9-14

As we pray for one another, Paul provides us a guideline of what we should be praying not only for others, but for ourselves as well.: to understand and embrace God's will and to live life in a way that is pleasing to our Lord.

Introduction

1. Paul prays for the believers in the church (Colossians 1.9a)

2. ...to know God's will (Colossians 1.9b)

-in the gospel message (Colossians 1:13-14)

3. ...so they can please Him (Colossians 1.10-12)

As you reflect on this part of God's Word, we must examine our own lives, examining how we pray, how we seek to understand God's will, and how we strive to live in a manner that is pleasing to Him.

How will you apply what you heard today?
