

PRAYING

FROM PAMPLIN

Missions Southeast Asia

Today, we're going to Southeast Asia in our prayer time, so we can pray for one of our missionaries serving there. Naya Wilder works with Deaf people in one of the Southeast Asian nations. She serves in a city, where three out of every four Deaf people in the country live. Note that there are few believers among the hearing people of this country. Among the Deaf, there are just a handful.

Naya and other workers have been trying to establish a community center for Deaf people. Deaf people often cannot communicate with their hearing family and have few opportunities to be around other Deaf people like them. Of course, a Christian community center would be staffed by Christians who can communicate in sign language — and tell Bible stories, which most Deaf people will follow.

So far just a few events for Deaf people have been held — a Christmas party and the like. The response has been good. Our church helps support Naya through our Cooperative Program giving. Let's pray now for her. Let's ask the Lord to help that community center be established so that thousands of Deaf people will meet Christ and come to know Him.

Deuteronomy 8:1-6

Pastor David Sexton

On Memorial Day we remember: remember there were those who lived and to keep our country and others free. There's a danger in forgetting, especially when you are about to go through a good time in your life. There are lessons to be learned from Israel's transition to the Promised Land.

1. Don't forget how God led you. (8:1-4)

2. Don't forget that God disciplines His own children. (8:5)

3. Don't forget God's commands. (8:6)

So on this Memorial Day weekend where we are encouraged to “not forget” those who died in wars fighting for our freedoms and our land, we remember the lessons that God has for His redeemed people: Don't forget how God has led you. Don't forget that God disciplines you if you are His child. And don't forget to keep God's commands.
