

I Peter: Living In Exile

Lesson #13 – Final Instructions

1) Scriptures To Read:

- a) I Peter 5:6-14
- b) James 4:14

2) Questions To Ponder:

- a) If you were writing a letter to fellow believers suffering persecution, what final words of encouragement or instruction would give them?
- b) How is an exhortation to remain humble helpful to Christians suffering persecution?
- c) What encouragement does Peter offer at the end of V6? When will this take place?
- d) What is Peter's point in I Peter 5:8-9?
- e) What does it mean to be "sober-minded" and "watchful"? Why is this necessary? How do we become "sober-minded" and "watchful"?
- f) We are told in V9 to resist the devil; how do we do that?
- g) How do Peter's instructions regarding the devil apply to Christians suffering from persecution?
- h) What do you find encouraging about V9?
- i) Is there any significance to Peter's emphasis in V10 that our sufferings are only for "a little while"?
