

He Made Himself Nothing | Charis Israelson

Questions for Sunday, March 23rd, 2026

1. How does Jesus' way of servant leadership challenge the way you think about power and influence?
2. Where in your life do you resist taking a "low" or humble position? Is there anyone you find difficult to serve (like Judas)? Why?
3. Do you relate to Peter's discomfort in receiving Jesus' service? Why or why not?
3. How has the gospel changed the way you live, think, or relate to others? What does it mean to you that you are not just saved from something, but for something?
4. What is one practical step you can take this week to follow Jesus more closely? (ex: believe, repent, be baptized, serve others, or participate in the mission)
