

Children and Parents I Wesley Hodgson

Questions for Sunday, April 26, 2026

1. We looked at the dynamics of honor and obedience of children towards their parents; what has this looked like for you in your life? Was this challenging in your experience growing up, or was this relatively simple?
2. We also looked at the dynamic of parents towards their children - how did the idea that we might exasperate our children resonate with you?
3. How has discipline looked in your own family, both in growing up or as your role as a parent, if you are a parent?