Questions for Sunday, November 2nd

1. What was standing out to you most from the teaching on Sunday?
2. We looked at who we were, what Christ has done for us, and who we are now; which of those were resonating the most and why?
3. The passage looked at how the cross reconciles us to each other; we often look at how it reconciles us to God; how have you seen the cross; is it primarily vertical between us and God, or the place where we are reconciled to each other?
4. What is a step you can take in light of this message?
