

"Twas The Night Before I Cal Fong

---

Questions for Sunday, March 29th 2026

1. How does Jesus' prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane challenge our modern understanding of strength and power, especially when we consider that true kingship came through surrender rather than conquest?
2. In what areas of your life are you most tempted to act like Peter, taking matters into your own hands rather than surrendering to God's will?
3. What does it mean practically to surrender your will to God's will on a daily basis, and how might this look different from simply making good moral choices?
4. How does the truth that Jesus removed all evidence of our guilt through the cross change the way we approach God in prayer and daily life?
5. How does the truth that Jesus removed all evidence of our guilt through the cross change the way we approach God in prayer and daily life?