1) LABOR IN THE WORD

(6-10)

⁶If you point these things out to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished by the words of the faith and the good teaching that you have followed. ⁷But have nothing to do with pointless and silly myths. Rather, train yourself in godliness. ⁸For the training of the body has limited benefit, but godliness is beneficial in every way, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come.

⁹This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. ¹⁰For this reason we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe.

2) LIVE OUT
THE WORD (11-16)

¹¹Command and teach these things. ¹²Don't let anyone despise your youth, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in purity. ¹³Until I come, give your attention to public reading, exhortation, and teaching. ¹⁴Don't neglect the gift that is in you; it was given to you through prophecy, with the laying on of hands by the council of elders.

"On the day called Sunday, all who live in cities or in the country gather together to one place, and the memoirs of the apostles and the writings of the prophets are read, as long as time permits; then, when the reader has finished, the president speaks, instructing and exhorting the people to imitate these good things."

Justin Martyr

"Nearly all the wisdom we possess consists of two parts: the knowledge of God and of ourselves."

John Calvin

¹⁵Practice these things; be committed to them, so that your progress may be evident to all. ¹⁶Pay close attention to your life and your teaching; persevere in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Watch your life and doctrine closely.
