Strangers Here: The Outcome of Your Faith

1 Peter 1:1-12

June 7, 2020 – Pastor Eric Van Scharrel

“Though you have not seen him, you _____ him. Though you do not now see him, you _____ in him and _____ with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the _____ of your faith, the _____ of your souls.” – 1 Peter 1:8-9

The faith God _____ – that comes out of _____ –
is both _____ and _____.

“By God’s power [you] are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith – more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire – may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.” – 1 Peter 1:5-7

What happens when the God you worship continues to be a living and active participant in this _____, and in your _____?

“He has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God’s power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.” – 1 Peter 1:3

“You have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; for: ‘All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord remains forever.’” – 1 Peter 1:23-25
