Thank You Note from Deb Henk

I want to express my gratitude for all of your financial support, prayers, messages and cards. With everything that has accumulated and not being able to work full time or not at all, your support has been a blessing.

This journey has taken me through mountains and valleys and especially an unexpected surgery. What I have noticed is seeing the blessings that come from the trials. I've learned God's timing is perfect. Waiting for the Lord gives strength, peace, the answers you need and direction.

I want to express my deep appreciation for all your love, kindness and generosity. Your hard work with raising the money, putting the fundraising meal together and even helping out here with meals! Thank you! Love you! God is the ultimate healer, so I appreciate your continued prayers, thoughts and love.
